Huge Crowd Hears Latin Ensemble In Guadalajara

Tops Biggest Audience
Of 1962 Tour; Mexico
Journey Nearing End

(Special from Mexico)

The Granite City Latin American music ensemble topped the record crowd of its 1962 Mexico tour when it played Friday night in Guadalajara before an estimated 12,000 to 15,000 persons.

Uncertain how it would be received in Guadalajara, a city noted for its high standards and knowledge of music, the ensemble kept the huge throng enthralled for an hour and a half—the longest concert of the tour.

The turnout in Chapultepec Park, Mexico City, had highlighted the initial journey, but it quickly became apparent that an even larger gathering was gathering in the park in front of the government palace Friday evening.

The park itself was filled for the outdoor performance, and loudspeakers carried the sound to speakers jamming adjacent streets for a distance of two blocks from the park.

There was no milling about despite the size of the gathering, and the efforts of the Granite City high school and Coolidge junior high school students were received with long and enthusiastic applause.

Meet Governor
The aftermath, the governor at Guadalajara who had witnessed the concert from an upstairs window of the palace, welcomed the ensemble and adult chaperones into the reception room, which had satin drapes, brocade furniture and a crystal chandelier.

He spoke to the group and singled out Vicki Couch for special honors as a representative of the ensemble.

Traveling to Tepic Saturday night for a concert, the ensemble went this morning to Aguascalientes and will go to Toluca Wednesday, Torreon Thursday and Saltillo Friday before heading for the border Saturday night. The group will return to the U.S. Sunday.

New Fire House Bids to be Studied By Council Tonight

Consideration of bids for construction of West Granite's new fire station is expected to be one of the major items of business at tonight's 8 o'clock meeting of the Granite City council. Bids were opened Friday afternoon.

Apparent low bidder is Henry Rose Co. with a base bid of $48,740 and a total bid of $48,712 with the three alternates.

The alternates are for a 3000 square foot gravel parking area, Grade B ceramic tile instead of concrete blocks in the apparatus room and fiberglass instead of steel in the overhead door.

Other bids were $49,231 (base and $50,829 total by L. Wolf Co.; $52,974 base and $54,349 total by Ed-Moore Co.; a new Granite City firm, and $53,175 base and $54,790 total by M. H. Wolfe Co.

The council set up $60,000 in its new budget for construction of the new fire house which is to be located along Rock road at the western outskirts of the city.

The present West Granite fire house, located at Cayuga street and Rock road is termite-ridden and has been outgrown.

The city is planning to assign the new fire house to the fire chief, to the West Granite area, and the present fire house has been ordered to be sold.

Council members are to select a presiding officer for tonight's session as Mayor Davis is vacationing in Florida.

While only a generalized agenda is available for tonight's session, the council also is expected to review once again the plumbing code which failed to get a majority vote two weeks ago, and also to consider ordinances for stop signs and zoning changes for the old Kate street substation which the Tri-City Tuba Co. plans to use as a warehouse.

Dr. Albert T. Ryan, local dentist who has upstairs office at a downtown location, has requested a zoning change in order to build an office on a vacant lot at 2400 Edmar avenue. The lot now is zoned R-2 for a single family dwelling and he is requesting a C-1 commercial classification. There is a commercial classification. There is a commercial classification.

Natural gas service for the 260 families in Eagle Park Acres is the latest project of the Eagle Park Improvement Association. It was announced Saturday by Cleveland Lee Johnson, president, and Carl Carnes, secretary.

Handbills are being distributed advising residents the service is possible by Thanksgiving or Christmas if a sufficient number of families are interested and put down $15 deposits with the Illinois Power Co.

Johnson said the deposit will be returned after a vote is taken on the gas service. If approved, the deposit may be made at the I.P.C. office in Granite City.

Pontoon Board Oks $3247 Tax Levy

Mayor Will Conduct
Person-to-Person Survey
Before Signing Bill

The young village of Pontoon Beach showed signs of its first growing pains Thursday night as the board of trustees passed a municipal tax appropriation of $3247, the first tax levied in the village since its incorporation in April 1963. It is to cover a $3502 budget.

The largest audience of village residents ever to attend a board session, 33 persons, asked questions for the first 50 minutes of the hour-long special meeting before the board voted unanimously to accept both the tax levy ordinance and the 1964-65 village budget.

Thomas Stoicoff, village president, said after the meeting he would conduct a survey of village and near-by residents before signing the ordinance.

Factors that need to be studied, he said, include the effect of the tax levy on further annexation to the municipality. He said he would also study the advisability of adding a road maintenance appropriation to the budget.

As passed, the tax ordinance would levy approximately 48 cents per $100 assessed valuation in the neighborhood of $2000 in the village. Village Attorney William Schooley said, however, the village may receive only an amount of one percent or 23 cents per $100 from state law prohibits the collection of more than one-third of one percent or 23 cents per $100 from a municipal corporate levy. The village has a low total assessment.

Before passage of the coming year's budget and the tax ordinance, Harold McBride, chairman of the Finance committee, and other members of the board answered questions about the budget in general, election expenses, other sources of income, and unused appropriations.

Election Costs Questioned
Mrs. Irene Karlechik, 4118 Lake drive, noted that the appropriation for elections for the coming fiscal year is three times the cost of the last election. The 1964-65 appropriation is $800, while the one election held in the village in April 1963, cost $288.

McBride said the excess appropriation would be used in case of need for a special election or elections. A regular election will be held within the year, in April 1965.

Mrs. Karlechik said that the Granite City district run a 16-precinct election for just a little over $800, and asked why the village would need more.

Simmons Expects Kerner To Stay In Race, Win

"I think Gov. Kerner is going to run and going to be re-elected," County Democratic Chairman Walter "Back" Simmons told the Press-Record today. There were widespread reports Friday and Saturday that Kerner would withdraw from the November ballot and be replaced by R. Sargent Shriver, Chicago's peace corps director, in the role of the late President Kennedy.

Simmons said that the Governor's decision to stay in the race is a relief. He noted that Shriver is being asked to leave his duties to head the new "war against poverty" program as well as continuing his peace corps duties.

A Chicago area survey has indicated that Kerner is trailing Charles Percy, the Republican gubernatorial candidate. Simmons said a pollster was hired by the Republican party to make the survey.

Weekend rumors indicated that Kerner might be named the No. 2 man in the U.S. Justice Department if Attorney General Robert Kennedy resigns to run for the Senate seat now held by Kenneth Keating (R. New York).

Next Meeting to be Thursday in Starch Co. Contract Talks

Union and company officials of Union Starch & Refining Co. have broken off negotiations in an effort to reach a new contract and are scheduled to resume meetings with the U. S. Conciliation and Mediation Service in St. Louis at 10 a.m. Thursday. It was learned today.

Neither company representatives nor union officials could be reached for comment this morning, but it was learned from the Mediation Service of the U. S. Conciliation and Mediation Service in St. Louis that efforts to settle contract issues were "broken off" Friday.

Gilbert Kannenberg, U.S. Mediation commissioner, told the Press-Record that he and Commissioner Bernard O'Keefe have been sitting in on meetings of the union and plant officials. Asked if the company and union have reached a new agreement, Kannenberg remarked that "we wouldn't be setting up the next Thursday's meeting if that were the case."

He said he had no indication of the union's plans concerning the contract which originally was set for Aug. 6, but which was called off at the request of the mediation service. The union at that time granted a two-week extension to time to permit further negotiations.

The extension expires this week.

The dispute involves a contract between the company and the U. S. Chemical and Atomic Workers Local 7683. The contract expired in July, according to a union official. The starch plant employs approximately 500 workers.

New Furnaces Planned At Alton Laclede Plant

Steelmaking capacity of the Laclede Steel Co. will be doubled, reaching 1,200,000 tons a year, through construction of a new melt shop at the Alton plant, President W. M. Akin said Friday. Madison also had been considered for the shop, which will include two electric arc furnaces of 150 tons capacity per charge.

The multi-million-dollar project will increase employment, Akin said, adding that construction will begin this fall. Space also will be provided for continuous billet casting lines. Insufficient steelmaking capacity has required Laclede to purchase semi-finished steel from other producers to meet customers' requirements, contributing to a drop in earnings from $1,311,164 in January-June 1963 to $947,070 in the first half of this year. Sales rose from $37,726,173 in the first half of 1963 to $39,688,668 through June 30 this year.

A United Fund Agency

Catholic Charities is an All-Family Welfare Agency

Catholic Charities is the all-family welfare agency of the Quad-Cities. A United Fund agency, it performs services for the distressed child or have him placed in a children's home. Follow Through Procedure When the problem is only temporary, the agency continues counseling and attempts to reunite the child and his family as soon as possible. Meanwhile the parents come for regular discussions to enable them to understand the roots of the child's disturbance. Often times the agency supplies assistance of a less critical nature. Mothers who have been called away from their homes on business while the father is at work have left the children at the Catholic Charities office, located at 2012 Delmar avenue.

When financial problems make it impossible for parents to outfit their children anew for the school year, the agency has in the past provided clothes and shoes. It has often also made clothes available to the parents themselves. If a couple is without children, they may seek assistance from Catholic Charities in adopting a child. The agency is the only one in the Quad-Cities licensed by the state to assist in adoption. Child welfare is its major area of concern, and it employs a full-time caseworker to handle adoption proceedings. Stern Action Planned On Mitchell Vandalism

It was noted, those plotting concentrated attention to the matter were Supt. Russell D. Johnson, Principal Gene Briggs, Treasurer and Chief Deputy Sheriff George Ramach.

More About Huge Crowd

of 38 will arrive home next Monday.

As the ensemble entered the final week of its month-long journey, thoughts drift back to Nuevo Laredo, Monterrey, Cuernavaca, Queretaro, Mexico City, Cuernavaca, Acapulco, Saltillo, El Paso and the smashing success in Guadalajara.

The group had gone to Guadalajara Thursday evening from Saltillo, where one of the Mexican citizens reported that he had been seen recording of the ensemble's Latin rhythms by a niece, Denise Madrid, a GCHS student.

Reception at Saltillo included the usual dignitaries plus a group of Mexican students. Large bouquets of flowers were presented to Ensemble Director Robert D. Todoroff and Connelio Martinez Elizondo, representative of the Mexico Cultural Affairs Department who is accompanying the ensemble.

A 5 a.m. awakening for the dejected group from Mexico City for Saltillo contributed to the only lapse in transporting music. The largest instrument—a bass viol played by Bill Eberhart, was thought to be in luggage compartment of the train but actually was at the Monte Casino Hotel.

The viol was retrieved by Eugene Alais and Joseph Wlezer in a 308-mile taxi trip. A concert at the packed Victoria Theater was just beginning as they arrived with the instrument.

The overnight stop in Mexico City, where the ensemble had spent nearly four days the previous week, followed a weekend stay at Hotel Caleta in Acapulco. Mrs. Georgina McMillan learned of the ensemble, which played concerts at the hotel and in a park.

Food has been excellent, the musicians merely signing their names and ordering anything on the menu.

The stay in Guadalajara was at Motel Chapalita, a beautiful motor hotel equipped with a swimming pool.

It was on the trip to that city that the ensemble had a test of muscle as well as musical skill. Encountering a recent landslide as his bus was on a scenic ride down a hairpin-turn dirt road leading to a canyon, the boys and men got out to push a large bulldozer out of the roadway.

Cigaret Believed Cause of $500 Fire

Venice firemen said the fire apparently started in the chair and then spread up the side of the building, into the eaves and then into the attic. Damage was estimated by Fire Chief William Meehan at about $500. Meehan said there was some damage to the contents.

The house, a two-dwelling building, is owned by N. W. Wendell, who was reported out of the city, and was occupied by Delbert Munnell in one section of the building and by Minnie Miller in the other.

Appeals Board Grants Permits

The Madison county zoning board of appeals will recommend the granting of three special use permits and the rezoning of a section of property in Chouteau township as the result of a series of on-site hearings.

Among petitions approved by the board of appeals was that of Theodore Kaseberg, owner of record, requesting a special use permit for a mobile home court in Nameoki township. The property is located on Kaseberg lane about 2000 feet east of route 111.

Also approved after an on-site hearing was the petition of Charles Fulkerson asking a special use permit to set a mobile home on lot 31 of Nameoki township. The property is located on Central lane east of Division street.

At the request of Suburbanites, Inc., a parcel of land in Chouteau township, located on old route 67 in Windy Meadows subdivision, the board approved rezoning from R-3, single family dwellings, to R-5, multiple family dwellings. Howard Kaseberg, chairman of the appeals board, said the rezoning was approved to permit the remodeling of several former business buildings into apartment buildings.

A rehearing of a petition by Nellie Taylor, owner, and Thomas Smoot, purchaser, requesting a use permit to locate a mobile home on a tract of land in Chouteau township resulted in approval of the petition on a temporary basis. The property is located on route 203 north of the Tri-City Speedway. The request had been denied after a previous hearing. Kaseberg said the temporary permit was issued to permit the petitioner to occupy a mobile home while building a house in the area.

The appeals board approvals will be referred to the county board of supervisors for final action.

GC Supply Firm Sells Inventory

The Granite City Supply Co., one of the city's oldest building supply firms, has disposed of its entire inventory of lumber and building materials as the result of an auction sale Wednesday and Thursday.

Mrs. Dorothy Buenger, operator of the company, described the sale as "even more successful than we hoped it would be." She said that the company was carrying a heavy inventory, particularly of lumber, but that "everything down to the last nail was sold. I had to sit in my office chair and keep them from seeing it get out from under me." The sale was held to complete a shut-down of the business.

Mrs. Buenger said that she did not have reports on purchasers available, but that a large part of the inventory obviously was bought up by other firms "because it went so fast and in large quantities."

The buildings and real estate will be sold, Mrs. Buenger said, adding that several offers have been received. Recently the company sold several of its buildings and part of its land to the Rusting & Grenville Co. of East Chicago, Ind., a steel fabricating firm that since has begun production in the buildings.

The Granite City Supply Co. began as a time, cement and feed firm in 1910, and was purchased in 1920 by Louis Buenger and his brother William. The firm was renamed the Granite City supply Co. and had operated since that time as a building materials supplier. Louis Buenger died three years ago and William Buenger died a year and a half ago.

The company terminated its business operations as of July 31.

GC Post Office One of 97 To Receive Special Award

A "citation for excellence" was presented Saturday morning to Granite City Postmaster W. T. Overbeck by Harold M. Jinks, special assistant to Postmaster General John A. Gronouski, in a ceremony at the local post office witnessed by community officials and civic leaders.

The award is given only to communities where postal facilities have received superior ratings in rigid inspections by regional postal authorities.

Overbeck commented that "with the assistance of the mail users of Granite City, we at the post office have worked to make our new building and grounds a pleasant place in which the public can conduct its business.

"We are proud of the fact that this interest in cleanliness has elicited a citation from the Postmaster General of the United States."

Jinks pointed out Granite City was one of 97 among 45,000 postal installations to receive the coveted award. In addition to the citation, he presented the post office with the latest photograph of President Johnson.

Governor Approves

The petition was drafted by farm advisors of the affected counties.

Rogers, office manager of the countywide Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Organization, said after the survey that conditions were much worse than he at first thought. He said moisture within the past week might have helped the hay and pasture crop, but that even reasonable rainfall now would be too late for the corn crop.

Madison County Farm Adviser Truman May, together with representatives of the Soil Conservation Service and other farm related organizations are supporting the plea for relief.

Rogers said that if the government were to grant relief, farmers would be eligible for FHA loans and would be able to use diverted acreage.

The initial request was made to the state disaster committee by Rogers and county agricultural representatives in a meeting at Effingham.

Rogers said, "A lot of farmers are chopping up their corn and storing it in a silo for feeding because it won't make a good ear of corn."

The drought is described as the worst in 10 years and is wiping out the corn crop throughout Southern Illinois.

Rogers said the warm dry weather of several weeks ago came at the worst possible time when the pollination period was underway. Rogers explained that the heat and dryness sears the corn and prevents the ear from developing.

Rapid Bond Retirement Will Reduce School Interest Costs
 The prospect of a $225,000 saving in bond interest costs favorable attention to the Granite City school board and the Chamber of Commerce Education Committee, which had recommended fast bond retirement to the board.

A further $398,000 saving would have been possible by leaving the capitation of bond and education taxes amounting to a 40-cent rate increase, applying most of it to the bonds until new school buildings are ready for occupancy. However, school officials felt obligated by their pre-referendum commitments to avoid any immediate educational rate boost and to limit the bond issue tax to 12 or 13 cents. When the full impact of newly authorized taxes is felt in future years, it will be borne by an expanded assessment base.

Perhaps the Education Committee or a similar group could be helpful in determining the best possible use for the former Granite City post office. The school district is under no obligation to take over the building, but it would be a welcome suggestion on the subject.

Aerial Pictures Reveal A Fast-Changing Community
 We do not know whether a picture is really worth 10,000 words, but aerial views by a Press-Record staff photographer in the last issue would seem to indicate that the community is changing in a manner impossible to fully duplicate with words.

The photographs not only pinpointed new school and park sites but also showed how housing and other buildings are gradually transforming the Quad-City countryside. Relative position of neighborhoods and landmarks to each other also was depicted.

Due to the rapid growth, aerial scenes are a valuable aid in describing the daily life of the local community, which already covers far more land than its founding fathers ever visualized. The Press-Record will continue to use aerial photography, along with the various other means of reporting and interpreting Quad-City area news developments.

Housing Authority Is Meeting An Important Local Need
 Presentation of a 1964 State Housing Board award to Granite City Housing Authority Executive Director David Morgan calls attention to his service as Illinois Association of Housing Authorities president and to the local authority's interest in providing attractive and well-equipped apartments at moderate cost for all age groups.

Need for the services provided by the Granite City Housing Authority is illustrated by the long waiting list for admittance to the Anchorage apartments for elderly persons and couples. The proposed second 100 Anchorage units will be filled immediately once they are received final approval and are constructed.

PLUMBING INSPECTION WOULD INVADE PRIVACY
 To the Editor:
 It was good news to read in the paper about the plumbing code inspection. I am sure that it will be beneficial to the city. We hope the aldermen against the private property will remain the same, and it may be some who are and will wake up and join them.

Inspection is for the welfare and protection of the individual householder and proper sanitation facilities in the city. It looks as if some aldermen think the householder is short of brains or something. They don't think a person knows whether his plumbing is good or bad. The city doesn't know more about their own home problems than a stranger coming for a plumbing job. There are many tax payers who care their own problems. They don't want the city to tell them their business. If a handful of people want this plumbing code, let them have it, but let the rest alone.

We want to keep our homes private. Maybe an inspector would be proper at 8:45 a.m. Friday at a boy's 26-inch blue and white bicycle with chrome fenders was stolen during the night.

REV. LEWIS KUJAWSKI
 First Church of God
 Ephesians 5:15-17: "See then that ye walk circumspectly, not as fools, but as wise—redeeming the time, because the days are evil. Wherefore be ye not slothful, but understanding what the will of the Lord is."

Most little villages a few years back had a place that was commonly referred to as "loafers' glory." Here the men would gather round and play checkers or whittle, or trade pocket knives, and pass jokes around—just to kill a way to use up the time on their hands.

We have the same wasting of time today, but we waste it by riding around in cars, going to parties and watching T.V. More often than you would think you will catch yourself doing many things, not because they are significant to you, but because you have nothing else to do with yourself.

It is at times such as these that we need to consider our place on this earth, and our responsibility to redeem the time. Not many people today are so blind that they cannot see God working in our world. Not many would say that God does not exist. Most of us belong to a church, and how many attend faithfully, with our family, and how many take an active part in church work.

How often do we read our Bible at home, or pray together as a family, or teach our children everything they know—how to walk, how to talk, how to spell and read and write.

How much more important it is that we consciously teach them about the eternal things of life.

Dr. SIMS TELLS ALL ABOUT THE SIMS
SAFEGUARD YOUR HEALTH
 A PUBLIC SERVICE OF THE ILLINOIS STATE MEDICAL SOCIETY

DR. SIMS TELLS ALL ABOUT THE SIMS
 Dr. Sims says...
 But who is Dr. Sims?
 Although he writes a weekly column for the Press-Record, he is not any one person. Since he is a creation of the Illinois State Medical Society, the society's initials were slightly transposed to form his last name.

Dr. Edward A. Piszczek, president, reports that the cartoon of the mythical physician has been identified as the identifying symbol of the state medical society. "For the first time," he explains, the public will be able to identify the "personality" of the Illinois State Medical Society. Dr. Sims will carry on the society's campaign for prevention of disease and for progress in public health.

His form and form will be a complete health messages in the Press-Record and other newspapers, on outdoor signs, on cards, on television, on brochures in physicians' offices and on all store posters.

Detailed Survey
 While there is no information as to whether any Illinois doctors actually look like "Dr. Sims," he exists in the sense that he symbolizes a typical physician. And the society approached the task of determining the "average Illinois physician" in a painstaking... no pun intended... fashion, surveying its members on a variety of questions.

A comprehensive word profile of Dr. Sims resulted, as well as the pen-and-ink profile appearing at the top of this article. The survey, which is the first of its kind, reveals that more than 80 percent of Illinois physicians are engaged in private practice. At least 64 percent have their own offices, while 21 percent work in partnership with a colleague.

The average physician, according to the survey, is a white male, 45 years of age, with an average of 118 patients a week—including 91 in his office, 23 in the hospital and four in their homes.

He also writes an average of 20 prescriptions daily, in addition to prescribing over-the-counter items and over-the-counter items.

Specialize
 The study shows that one-third of Illinois State Medical Society members are general practitioners, while the remaining two-thirds are medical specialists.

Heading the list of medical specialties is internal medicine, followed by surgery, 8.5 percent; and teach them to recognize and speak to the Creator of this world and of our very lives.

"A little girl was sitting on her little face again, said 'Daddy,' it's almost time for Sunday school. Let's go."

"They teach us here of Jesus' love, of how he died for all, Upon the cruel cross to save, Those who sin will go to the creek."

"Oh, no!" said Daddy, "Not today, I've worked hard all day, and I must have one day of rest—I'm going to the creek."

"For there I can relax and rest—and fishin' time, they say. So run along, don't bother me, well go to church some day."

"Months and years passed away, but Daddy heard the school. 'Let's go to Sunday School.' Those childhood days are o'er."

"And now that Daddy's growing old, when life is almost through, He finds time to go to church... But what does daught-

"She says, 'Oh, Daddy, not today, I stayed up most all night, and I can't go to church today. I'm too tired.'"

"Then Daddy looks at his trembling hand to brush away his tears. Again he hears the pleading voice distinctly through the years."

"He sees a small girl's shining face upturned, with eyes aglow, and he wonders how many of us who believe in God, and who found our faith from a Christian home, will one day look at the outline of our children, and say of ourselves, 'Lord, if I could only have that spare time back again.'"

the change...here

...and here!

It's August. You're not exactly freezing. Nevertheless, this is the time to stop in at Illinois Power and apply for your gas heating permit—while the supply of natural gas is still available to new heating customers.

That way, come cold weather, you'll be sure of constant, automatic warmth with complete freedom from fuel supply problems.

And—as folks find out after converting to piped-in natural gas—this non-stop, dependable heating fuel actually costs less than fuels which have to be hauled to your home.

So do it now.

Steel Output Sets Record

The output of raw steel in the United States for the first seven months of 1964 reached a record high of 71,344,672 net tons, American Iron and Steel Institute announced today. The former record total for a seven-month period was 69,510,379 tons produced during 1959. The record-breaking seven-month total was 3.1% ahead of the 67.9 million tons produced during the same period in 1963.

Steel production in July 1964 was 10.1 million tons, also a record for the month of July, and the first time that 10 million tons had been poured in a summer month. July 1963 output was 8,653,544 tons.

Steel produced by the basic oxygen process during the first seven months of 1964 was a record 7.9 million, sharply ahead of the 4.8 million tons achieved by this process during the similar period in 1963. Steel made by the electric furnace process came to 7 million tons in the first seven months of 1964, against 6.6 million tons in seven months of 1963.
